Welcome and Announcements

Land Acknowledgement

As we gather, together let us pause to remember that we live, work, and worship on lands that are, by law, the unceded territories of the Nations of Treaty 7. As Christ's people, may we be people of love, of truth, and of reconciliation. May we live with respect on this land, and in peace and friendship with its people.

Call to Worship Epiphany 1 – Baptism of our Lord

Come, let us gather on this first Sunday of Epiphany,

Searching with the Magi, stargazers and seekers.

Come, let us offer our gifts, to honour the birth of Christ.

Bringing our highest visions and finest energies.

Come! Let us follow Jesus to the Jordan River to be baptized.

Water-washed and renewed for the year to come.

Come, let us renew our Baptism vocation to be followers of the Way.

Seeking to live in right relationship with all creation.

Come, let us take our place as carriers of the light of Christ,

Singing and rejoicing in this Season of Epiphany.

In the water of Baptism, the dove descends, and a voice proclaims,

"This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

As Jesus was named, claimed and chosen in his Baptism,

We are named, claimed and chosen as a "Beloved One."

When we come to the Jordan riverbank with heavy hearts,
Our burdens are lifted and hope is restored.
When we come to the riverbank with questions and doubts,
Our fears are named and faced.
When we come to the riverbank anxious about the year to come,
Our faith helps to step out in courage and live in the light.

In the fullness of time, you gave us Jesus,

Holy One, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this water,
