January 18, 2026, 10:00am
Guest Minister: Rev. Ruth McArther
Music Ministry: Lee Dowan, Dr. Alex Shawn

Our scripture passages today evoke images of finding strength in the act of Being Called. There are many ways to God, and we each travel our own way, sometimes responding to a call, sometimes to an invitation. How do you experience that?

Prelude                      Be Not Afraid                      arr. M. Hayes

The Introit                      We Are One                      VU #402

Welcome and Announcements

Land Acknowledgement

Today, we honour the Treaty 7 peoples—the Siksikka (Blackfoot), Kainai (Blood), Piikani (Peigan), Stoney-Nakoda and Tssut’ina. These five nations lived on the land of southern Alberta and northern Montana. They worked, hunted, played and celebrated, through ceremony, their culture and their people. Today, we also honour the Metis people of this territory, Districts 5 and 6, and thank them for enriching this land by their presence. The Metis people are a distinct Indigenous group with a unique history, culture and language, descended from unions between First Nations women and European men, primarily fur traders. We honour all Indigenous peoples who lived on this land before us.

Lighting The Christ Candle

We are still in the depths of winter. The cold winds and long nights keep us inside, and we look forward to spring. May this Christ light warm our hearts and light our way, so that we can be faithful disciples in this time. Amen. (the Christ Candle is lit)

The Call to Worship (Responsively)

Come and praise God, who gathers us into relationship.

Come and praise the Spirit forging us into one.

Come and praise Jesus, who travels the path of love beside us.

We come to sing a new song of joyful freedom.

We come to listen to the word as disciples.

We come to explore and to deepen our faith.

Take time for awe and wonder, for the vibrant life of creation to seep deeply into our souls, for the in-breathing of God’s will.

We pause, reverently, mindful of God as the ground of our being, pondering our unity in the touch of baptismal water, tasting the living memory of bread broken and wine poured out.

We come in prayer together:

With few words, O Christ, you called us, choosing us to follow and to growth. With wisdom and self-giving, you accompany us toward a challenging Spirit, gracing us with hearts for justice and for hospitality.

Unite our hearts in your symphony of passion, adding our voices to yours in close harmony, teaching us the melodies of your love. Amen.

Opening Hymn

Oh A Song Must Rise

MV #142

Candles of Joy, Concern and Sorrow

Opening Prayer

We come together and we feel your welcome, gracious God. We come today to seek the light of Epiphany. By the light of faith lead us to worship you in peace and love and guide us in your way. Amen

Hymn

I Am a Child of God

Special

The Power of Your Love

arr. C. Tornquist

Solo: Dr. Alex Shawn

Offering Invitation

I Heard the Voice of Jesus

arr. L Dengler

It is a blessing to know that within our church and among its global partners, there are those well skilled in encouraging people to move from enmity to friendship. We support them, O God, with our own efforts and these gifts.

Our morning offering will now be received.

Prayer of Dedication

O God of all Light we bring our gifts to you.

May they be used to bring Unity into our world.

May they be used as an offering, to our varied ministries, that each may be part of your light for the healing of the world. AMEN

Prayers of the People

The Prayer of Jesus

Closing Hymn

Arise Your Light Is Come

VU #679 v. 1,4,5,6

The Blessing And Sending Forth

Go from here, transformed by what we felt today.

We have found the light we have been seeking.

Yet, it is not always what we thought it would be.

We have found and we have been found.

Let us seek to understand our faith more deeply so that our discipleship may be transformed by God's grace. Amen

Beth W Johnston, Bridging Waters P.C., Nipawin, Sask.

Postlude

Make Me A Channel of Your Peace

arr. M. Hayes
